ELIGIBILITY CENTER

A background photograph of several female athletes in blue and white uniforms running on a track. The athletes are seen from behind, with their hair and clothing in motion. The image is slightly blurred to convey a sense of speed. In the bottom right corner, there is a decorative graphic consisting of several overlapping, parallel lines in white, red, and blue, forming a stylized 'V' or zigzag shape.

WHAT IS THE NCAA ELIGIBILITY CENTER?

WHAT IS THE ELIGIBILITY CENTER?

RECRUITING CALENDARS

NCAA member schools limit recruiting to certain periods during the year.

- » Recruiting calendars promote the well-being of college-bound student-athletes and ensure fairness among schools by defining certain periods during the year in which recruiting may or may not occur in a particular sport.
 - Contact period.
 - Dead period.
 - Quiet period.

UNOFFICIAL VS OFFICIAL VISITS

Unofficial Visits

Any visit to a college campus paid by you or your family members.

- » Take as many unofficial visits as you like after the first permissible date in each sport.
- » Be mindful of recruiting shutdowns and dead periods when scheduling unofficial visits.

You may receive:

- » Complimentary admission.
 - This includes three tickets for a home Division I athletics contest or five tickets for a home Division II athletics contest.

Note: You cannot talk with a coach during an unofficial visit during your sport's dead period.

UNOFFICIAL VS OFFICIAL VISITS

Official Visits

Before a Division I or II official visit you must:

- » Send the NCAA school a high school transcript.
- » Register for a Certification account with the Eligibility Center.

During an official visit, NCAA schools can:

- » Pay for transportation to and from the college.
 - This includes up to two family members in Division I basketball and FBS football.
- » Provide lodging and meals.
 - This includes reasonable entertainment expenses.

Note: You cannot take an official visit during your sport's dead period.

NATIONAL LETTER OF INTENT

- » By signing a NLI, you are agreeing to attend a Division I or II school for one academic year.
- » NLIs are voluntary and ends the recruiting process.
- » NCAA schools agree to provide athletics financial aid to you for a minimum of one academic year.
 - You must be admitted to the school.
 - You must be eligible for financial aid under NCAA rules.

SCHOLARSHIPS BY SPORT

Only about 2% of high school athletes are awarded athletics scholarships to compete in college.

- » Expectations.
 - Annual scholarships.
 - Renewal.
- » Academic scholarships.
- » Athletics scholarships.

QUESTIONS TO ASK

- » What is the cost of attendance?
 - Financial aid.
 - > Will I receive a full or partial scholarship sport?
 - > If I'm injured and can no longer compete, will my scholarship remain?
 - On-campus housing.
- » What degree programs are offered?
- » What is the NCAA school's graduation rate?
- » Where do you stand from a recruiting standpoint?
 - #1 vs #5 vs standby.
 - NLI.
 - Redshirt expectations.
- » What is the coaching philosophy and style?

PROACTIVE STUDENT ACTIONS

If you want to play sports in college, you must:

- » Share your NCAA ID with Division I and II schools recruiting you.
- » Apply to schools of your choosing to be accepted.
- » Request final amateurism certification before enrolling full time in college.
 - Starting April 1 (fall).
 - Starting Oct. 1 (winter/spring).
- » Ask your counselor to submit your final transcript with proof of graduation.
- » Considerations for documented education impacting disabilities.
