

(AERIAL #12 FONT & DOUBLE SPACED)

GLOBAL STUDIES II PROJECT

by

Walter Morris

Period 1

JUNE 1, 2009

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I)	PHILOSOPHY	1-2
II)	THESIS	3-4
III)	ANALYSIS	5-7
IV)	DISGNOSIS	8-9
V)	EVALUATION	10-12
.

I) PHILOSOPHY

Humanism is the people's right to autonomously exist.

The philosophy is the goal to be achieved.

Describe the meaning of the statement through its segments and give examples for each segment;

segment one is- Humanism

segment two is- is the people's right segment three is- to autonomously

segment four is- exist

Give a summary statement that leads to your point of view about the philosophy and explain your position.

II) THESIS

The people govern themselves through the decisions of democratically elected representatives.

The thesis is the means for achieving the philosophy.

Describe the meaning of the statement through its segments and give examples for each segment;

segment one is- The people

segment two is- govern themselves segment three is- through the decisions of segment four is- democratically elected representatives

Give a summary statement that leads to your point of view about the thesis and explain your position.

III) ANALYSIS

The end of medieval times came when people became better educated and better at making their own decisions. The invention of the printing press started popular education in that affordable books became plentiful, people learned to read and think for themselves. The will of the people became the normal practice of governing

xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

The analysis is the logical order of events that describe the causes, events and results of a particular part of history.

IV) DIAGNOSIS

Humanism replaced the need for monarchs with people who are self aware and willing to take the responsibility for managing their lives. The democratically elected representatives were those individuals the people put in place to represent the peoples' interest.

Each diagnosis finding starts on a new page. For each finding you will describe how the analysis supports or does not support the philosophy and thesis.

GENERAL FORMAT FOR EACH FINDING;

Humanism is (supported / not supported) in the finding of (describe the situation). The situation exists because it (is / is not part of the system of democratically electing representatives) and explain why.

V) EVALUATION

Representative democracy allows the peoples' will to be exercised while the people pursue their own private lives and careers with the assumed understanding that the peoples' interests are cared for. This thinking is the cornerstone of today's xxxxxxxxxxxx

Give your personal judgment of the facts that you have derived from the diagnosis by giving your opinion of the quality of each position that you have recognized. Fully explain why you have these opinions.